1- The primitive Man

• If we look at the actual World, which included the two sides of here-above and here-below, the primitive man naturally called it Emanating from the Mother. How? From the mother's moist and murky VULVA (matrix), as one would expect, came out a fruit: the closed LOTUS bud. And the world was none other than the open lotus, fully blossomed, prone to turn into the Plentiful "thousand-petaled" corolla, indefinitely perpetuated through cycles.

2- The civilized Man

• The mentality of the civilized man was Spiritist. This means that Pneumatism constituted his objective Conception of things, and Logic his subjective Method.

It is preferable to opt directly for an evocation of civilized faith starting from its effect on the world. Hence my borrowing from the following declaration by Alexander the Great (330 BC), student of Aristotle: "The affairs of the World are determined by two things: the PEN and the WORD. And it matters that the sword be dominated by the pen".

The Complete Man

"By far from not believing in anything,
I do believe in nothingness."

— 1761 —

Dom Deschamps 1716-1774

"We must give back to our ANCESTORS (Prehistos)
as much as we hold from them;
and to THE REAL (Truth) what befits him".

Ainé de Dom Deschamps

CREDO

Kardi, camarades !

C'est le moment d'abattre le Colosse aux pieds d'argile : l'Occident pourri jusqu'à l'os.

Désertons le Système. Contre-société (École, Media, Justice, Police, et tout le St Frusquin) !

- Matière et Esprit sont les 2 faces d'une même et unique Réalité.

Nature et Humanité sont à Parité.

- Deux Partis accouplés forment l'assise sociale : le Féminin et le Masculin.

- Deux Valeurs combinées animent le travail : Égalité et Liberté. Ceci entraîne une double conduite : Fraternelle et Amicale.

- Le nouveau régime d'Associés authentiques implique tout à la fois la Gratuité et le Volontariat.

Tandis que les prisons sont vidées sans façon, les serrures de tout type s'en vont au musée.

De même que la Propriété privée-publicue disparaît et fait place à de simples Possessions, les Frontières sont renversées et l'O.N.U. est expédiée dans les poubelles de l'histoire.

Enfin ! La Société Convenable est là : le Comm-Anar. Sans Argent et sans Armes.

CREED

Go for it, fellows!

Now's our time to bring down the Idol with feet of clay: the West rotten to the core.

Forsake the System. Counter-community (School, Media, Courts, Constabulary, and the whole caboodle)!

- Matter and Spirit are heads and tails of the same and single Real.

Nature and Humanity are at Parity.

- Two mated Parties make up the social basis: one Feminine and the other Masculine.

- Two combined values animate working: Equality and Liberty. This entails a twofold behaviour: Brotherhood and Friendship.

- The new regime of genuine Partners implies all at once Free Livelihood and Voluntary Service.

As jails are offhand vacated, likewise locks of every kind depart for the museum.

As well as public-private Properties vanish and give way to mere Possessions, Borders are overthrown and U.N.O. is consigned to the scrap heap of history.

Well! Well! We've got the Suitable Community: Anar-Comm. Without Money and Weapons.
