★ Truthful Realism ★

(T. R.)

At this very moment, and in many places, a host of earthlings are saying to themselves: how is it that our society seems to be run by Maniacs and Torturers? At this rate, where are we going?

Well, yes, we are governed by accomplished Monsters. But let us be sure that the popular Masses is Innocent of the fact. And then, in the past, we lived some time under the control of Wise, Bold and Heroic leaders.

Then, the Riddle arises: was the centuries' experience worth only to mature the nameless Fatal social Disaster? Hell no! But, in one respect, there is some of that...

THERE:

To find out where we will go, we had to dig up where we REALLY came from. So, the T.R. deciphered the nature of the Enigma: a shortcoming affected our thinking species from its birth! Blast! But still the solution to the problem was “Easy as pie”, to the extent that I allow myself to sing my Hallelujah! הַלְלֵיָהּ.

Demonstration:

PREHISTORY

We, human beings, differ from all other things, merely as a THINKING species! Thus, we have contributed to our own “creation”, at the same time as we instilled in ourselves the work through the Speech. With this, we were building up a specifically social history, based on a World View: Mythical then Religious, and finally our Riënisme of Voïans, absolutely CRITICAL (Dom Deschamps - 1761).

Nevertheless, until now, we have evolved within a Prehistoric bloc, under two identical-opposite FORMS:

Kindred - Bourgeois; Matterist - Spiritist

Gregarious - Individualistic; Traditionalist - Innovative

Feminist – Masculinist
